

Neb Hayden Biography

Neb Hayden is a guy with 3 sons and six grandchildren sharing things he has learned through the years with others in their journey with Jesus. He was born and raised in Charlotte, North Carolina. He attended the University of Alabama on a football scholarship. Leaving graduate school, Neb worked with the national staff of Young Life. In 1980 he, his wife Susan, and their three small children moved to the Washington, DC area. There Neb became involved in a ministry caring for men and women in public life. His work has been to some seventy-five countries, where he has been mostly behind the scenes in discipling, encouraging, working with small groups, and teaching in a refreshingly honest and unconventional style.

Neb and Susan are back in Charlotte, where he has found time to write while also speaking at various gatherings around the country. He is the author of two books. "When the Good News Gets Even Better" ...A walk through the gospels in Jewish sandals, the life of Jesus from the perspective of a first-century Jew and "Walking with a Limp," daily biblical thoughts that you can build upon to fall more deeply in love with Jesus Christ and begin to think His thoughts after Him. Both books are available on Amazon.
