

How do I deal with acts of sin now?

The Believer repents from sinning, which will strengthen your awareness

- 1 John 1:8-9 verb tenses... if we say, if we confess, He will forgive – subjunctive/simple, undefined action
- 1 John 2:12 verb tenses... have been forgiven – past tense, statement of fact

Godly sorrow leads to repentance

Four Little People figurines are shown in a construction-themed setting. From left to right: a white male figure with a yellow hard hat and blue jumpsuit holding two black tires; a white male figure with an orange hard hat and orange jumpsuit standing near a hole in the ground; a black male figure with a red cap, white shirt, blue overalls, and a red star on his forehead, carrying a yellow and orange gift box and a brown sack; and a brown female figure with an orange hard hat, white shirt, and blue skirt, holding a red shovel and a silver hammer. The background includes a small wooden building, a large potted plant in a galvanized bucket, and a grey wall with a window.

Redeemed man between the stimulus and his response

How We Operate

A space exists between the stimulus and your response

Only you manage this space
The space is where knowing becomes believing and yielding

A New Life for People Accepting God, Romans 5:1-8:39

The space between the stimulus and your response

An internal temptation by which the devil sought to derail Jesus the Messiah from His obedience to Father

Luke 4:13

Believers have this same internal space

Redeemed man living as he is made to live

We grow in awareness as we walk from faith to faith, the Spirit is activating truth, we are fighting spiritually, we are becoming more aware of God and less aware of ourself — and we rest.
